American
Gear Manufacturers Association

Join AGMA & ABMA for the 2010 Annual Meeting!

Take a fresh look at 2009; RECOUP the lessons learned; RESTART your motor energized with new and different trends, ideas and approaches; REINSTATE your company's objective and prepare for RECOVERY in a new decade.

Return with us to Loews Ventana Canyon Resort, which is set in a pristine habitat where the Catalina foothills give way to the Sonora Desert. Towering Saguaro cacti, coyotes, and great horned owls live in undisturbed harmony throughout the resort's ninety-three acres.

The resort boasts of two Tom Fazio golf courses; a complete health spa offering European and Asian-style treatments; two outdoor pools; eight lighted tennis courts; and a 2.5-mile course for walking or jogging. When the resort opened, Architectural Digest called it "the first environmentally conceived resort in North America."

★ Annual Meeting Featured Presentations ★

Thursday, General Session

"Ignite Your Intuition" Craig Karges

Extraordinist Craig Karges is known to millions of television viewers for his remarkable demonstrations of extraordinary phenomena on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, Larry King Live, and others. Each year, he presents his critically acclaimed one-man touring show "Experience the Extraordinary" at performing arts centers, universities and corporate events in over 150 cities worldwide.

For AGMA and ABMA Craig Karges shifts his focus from entertainment to empowerment and will demonstrate how each of you can unlock the extraordinary natural powers of your mind.

You will learn techniques to test your intuition, as well as how to tap into your unconscious mind to improve your memory and creativity. You will also learn how to use your intuition to solve problems; to make better business decisions; to develop innovative ideas — even how and when to be in the right place at the right time!

Open the 2010 Annual Meeting on the right track and embrace those "gifts" hidden within your own mind. Let Craig help you unlock those extraordinary powers to achieve your goals and be primed for RECOVERY.

Friday General Sessions

"Digital Marketing 101; How to Conquer and Succeed in the 21st Century"

Pat Cleary, Senior Vice President of Digital Public Affairs, Fleishman-Hillard

Does your company's marketing include new media? Has your company's marketing plan been left in the dust with the advent of blogs, Facebook, Twitter and YouTube? Were you even aware that these resources are more than socializing tools for teenagers? Each of these tools has found its way to become an integral part in today's business arena. One or all of these can be that feature that distinguishes your company and creates that competitive edge.

We welcome back Pat Cleary for this session. Pat served as the highly rated moderator for the 2009 AGMA/ABMA Annual Meeting panel presentation. Pat will share his own experience of launching several successful manufacturing related blogs and videos, and offer his insights on how you and your company can RESTART and integrate these tools successfully.

"Energy Efficiency for Your Company and Your Customers"

R. Neal Elliott - Associate Director for Research, American Council for an Energy-Efficient Economy (ACEEE)

R. Neal Elliott, Ph.D., P.E. is the Associate Director for Research for the American Council for an Energy-Efficient Economy, coordinating their overall research efforts.

Elliott is an internationally recognized expert and author on energy efficiency; energy efficiency programs and policies; motor systems; combined heat and power; analysis of energy efficiency and energy markets; and a frequent speaker at domestic and international conferences. Elliott also serves in an advisory capacity to industry, state and federal governments, utilities, regulators and advocates on energy markets, policy and program design.

Neal will discuss how manufacturers like us have a RENEWED interest in helping themselves and their customers save money and increase the benefits of being energy efficient.

Saturday General Sessions

"Automotive Industry Outlook"

Kim Korth, President, IRN, Inc.

No one industry has defined the 2009 slowdown as much as the automotive industry. Between the GM bailout and the "cash for clunkers" program, U.S. companies, the federal government, and consumers have been forced to look critically at all components of this industry. Kim Korth will analyze the major factors that have defined this industry; i.e., consumer's behavior; consumer confidence; and current and future trends for both foreign and domestic cars.

Kim has been actively engaged in the auto industry for over thirty years. While President of IRN, a leading consulting firm for global automotive suppliers, she has been instrumental in providing automotive intelligence to middle-market manufacturers and institutions.

"Economic Outlook for 2010 and Beyond"

Dr. Nariman Behraves, Chief Economist and Executive Vice President, IHS Global Insight

Each quarter's statistical data creates hope that the economic recovery is finally here. Unfortunately the recent data has shown mixed messages that lead to heightened anxiety. Dr. Nariman Behraves of Global Insight will help us sift through this data and understand key trends and tools to prepare us for RECOVERY.

Dr. Nariman Behraves is a master at forecasting economic trends and a frequent contributor to business publications such as The Wall Street Journal, the New York Times and USA Today. You will recognize him as a guest contributor on national radio and television programs, where he is called upon to discuss economic outlooks and risk analysis for the United States, Europe, Japan, China and other emerging markets.

In 2004, Dr. Behraves was rated as the most accurate of forty-three economists tracked quarterly in 2004 by USA Today. In The Wall Street Journal's annual ranking of U.S. forecasters, Dr. Behraves was ranked #3 (out of 56) for 2006, and was the only forecaster to place in the top six for 2003, 2004 and 2006.

Join Dr. Behraves, as he brings his 30 years of economic experience to the AGMA/ABMA annual meeting where he will pinpoint data pertinent to our industry and answers your questions.

Annual Meeting Highlights

What's New?

Friday, March 5 Casino Night

Sponsored by Forest City Gear, R.P. Machine Enterprises and Comer Industries

Bring on those chips, dice and cards as we join the AGMA Foundation Board in a fun-filled Casino Night that is sure to bring out the competitive spirit in everyone. If you are a veteran card player or just a novice, "Lady Luck" may be with you as we turn Tucson into Vegas.

Proceeds from the evening will support the AGMA Foundation's efforts in the advancement of gear science, standards, and education.

Saturday, March 6 Reception & Dinner Retire that Tuxedo!

This year Saturday's Closing Dinner will be a joint AGMA/ABMA event, featuring the habitat and culture of the unique

Arizona desert area. You will have a chance to get familiar with some of our desert friends and enjoy some great music and delicious food that highlight the blending of the Southwest's diverse cultures.

Saturday's dinner will not be formal, but please indicate on the registration form if you are planning to attend and how many in your party. This will be a significant help as we begin to plan for seating and confirm the number of attendees to the hotel.

Afternoon Optional Trips

Please indicate your interest in these programs on the registration form

Friday, March 5 Tucson Botanical Gardens

$55 per person
Limited to 25 participants
2:00 - 5:00 pm

Come out into the Arizona sunshine and experience the gardens, which have been called "a tranquil oasis in the heart of Tucson". Here you can see native plants and learn how these plants survive in the desert environment. The Tucson Botanical Gardens have been recognized as one of the best small public gardens in America for their community conservation and protection programs.

Your admission also includes a memorable trip to the Butterfly Magic display, where butterflies from all over the world will be flying freely in a climate controlled environment.

Fee includes round trip coach transportation; admission to the gardens and Butterfly Magic; private tour; and tea in the gazebo areas.

Saturday, March 6 Play Ball

If you are a baseball fan and you have not experienced Spring Training, you don't know what you are missing. Several major league teams play in the Tucson area. Once the schedule is released we can verify the dates and home games. Spring training is a great way to shake off the winter blues and enjoy American's favorite pastime.

Please indicate on the registration form if you are interested in going to Spring Training. Assuming that there is a game at either Tucson's Electric Park or Hi Corbett Field, we will contact you and then arrange for group tickets. There will be no group transportation available; neither one of the parks is far from the resort.

Saturday, March 6 Caterpillar® Inc./Tinaja Hills Demonstration & Application Center Green Valley, AZ

As long as you are in the area, you might be interested in having a customized machinery demonstration, specifically tailored to the interests of the gearing and bearing industry. Indicate your interest on the registration form and we will contact you. You can see an example of the Caterpillar® facilities at www.cat.com/cda/layout?m=160162&cx=7.

There will be no group transportation available. Green Valley, AZ is about 1 hour drive from Loews.
