The annual golf tournament will take place on Friday afternoon on the Loews Ventana Canyon Course. The Tom Fazio designed course wanders through the Catalina foothills, combining greens with islands of saguaro and an opportunity to see some of the native habitat.

The tournament will be a mixed scramble which offers players of all levels an opportunity to have fun; network with colleagues and enjoy the desert sunshine.

Mulligans and string will be available for purchase. The proceeds from these purchases, in addition to several new challenges during the tournament, will benefit the AGMA Foundation.

Fees:

Tournament fee of $200 includes all greens fees, use of a shared cart, driving range on the day of the tournament, box lunch, club storage, all taxes and gratuities, tournament arrangements, and AGMA administrative fee.

Club Rental:

Calloway clubs are available to rent for a fee of $60 (includes tax). If you are interested in club rental - please indicate the choice of Men's or Women's and either left or right.
